DR. ELMER LOUIS KAYSER

DEDICATION

It would be an impossible task to find one person who has given more of himself or has become more a part of The George Washington University than Dr. Elmer Louis Kayser.

Educated in District schools, Dr. Kayser, a native Washingtonian, was graduated from Western High School in 1914. He attended George Washington, received his bachelor's degree here in 1917, and his master's in 1918. Dr. Kayser's graduate studies also led him to Johns Hopkins University and to Columbia University, where he received his Doctor of Philosophy in 1932. In 1948, GWU presented him with an honorary Doctor of Laws.

Serving the University in various capacities, Dr. Kayser has taught courses in European history, nationalism, public speaking, and current history. His sparkling wit, personal manner, and vast knowledge have consistently drawn large numbers of students to his classes.

Dr. Kayser has served as assistant librarian, graduate manager of activities, and registrar of the University. He was also University Marshal, Dean of the Division of University Students, director of the Summer School, and director of the School of Government. An active alumnus, Dr. Kayser has been secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president of the Alumni Association. He received the Alumni Achievement Award in 1941.

Currently, as university historian, Dr. Kayser is writing what will become the first published history of The George Washington University. As the University expanded and changed over the past fifty years, Dr. Kayser made significant contributions in practically every phase of campus life. Even the name "Colonials" must be credited to him.

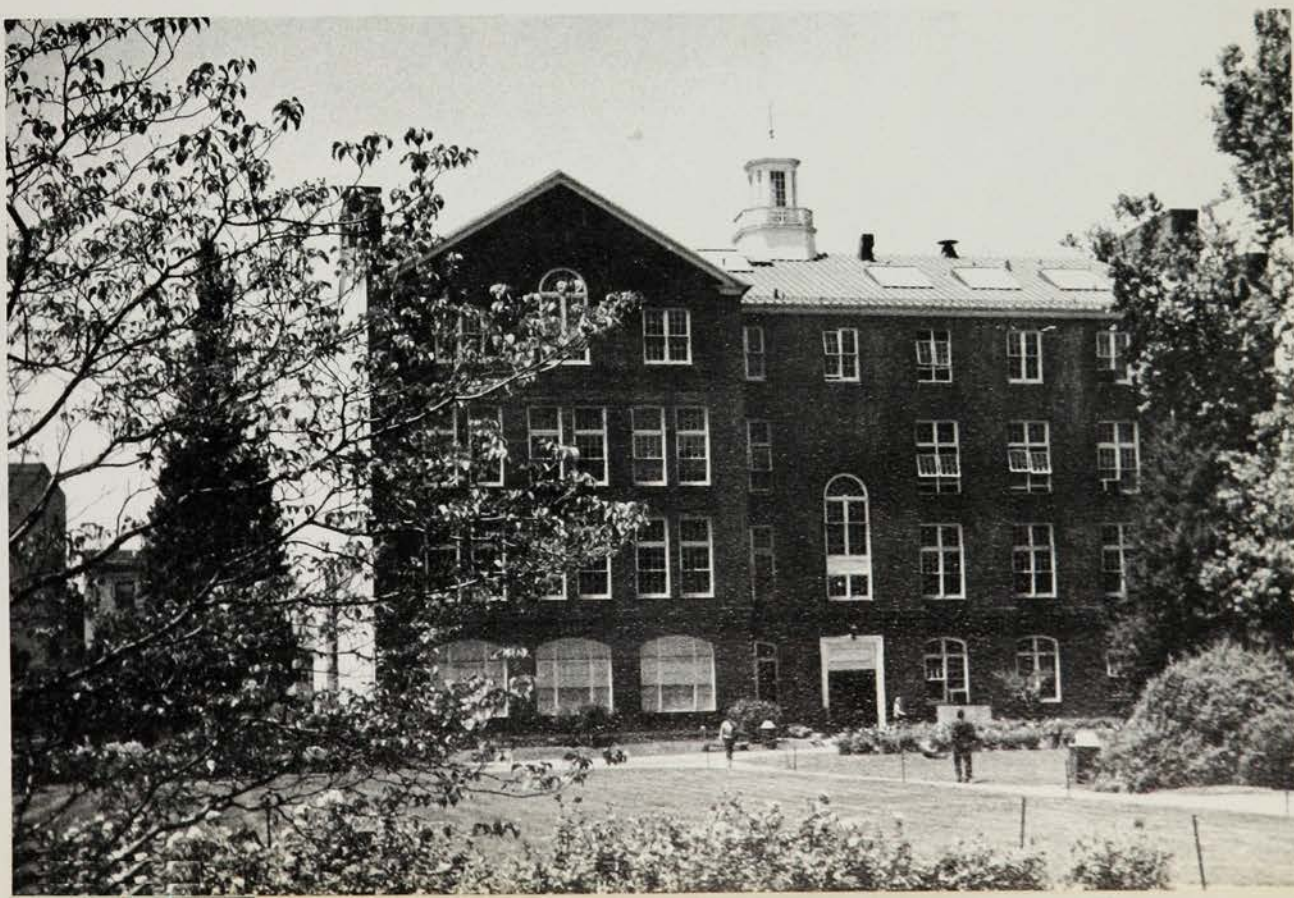

Dr. Kayser has added value and meaning to the students' involvement with this institution. Certainly his students from the past fifty years share our admiration and affection for him. For these reasons, the 1967 edition of the CHERRY TREE is dedicated in gratitude to Dr. Elmer Louis Kayser, a man who embodies the ideals and spirit of The George Washington University.

Under the leadership of President Elliott, the emphasis at the University is being placed on decentralization of administrative authority, so that as many decisions as possible will be in the hands of those who know the problems best. Academic matters thus become even more the responsibilities of the deans of the schools and their faculties than has been true in the past; consequently, the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs will put further emphasis on institutional research and planning. With the creation of the office of the Acting Dean of Students, the opinions and judgments of students are being increasingly sought on nonacademic matters affecting student affairs.

Academic Affairs

LLOYD H. ELLIOTT
President

... it must be the purpose of the George Washington University to bring its students and faculty to a clear understanding of the ongoing march of history without becoming blinded by the onrushing lights, to know and understand government without being a part of it, to come and to know life by both living and studying it, and to remain free in order that its unique contribution may be made to the self-generating process of the society which it seeks to strengthen.

If such a spirit can be kept alive and nourished, and if such purposes become the driving force in the lives of faculty and students, it matters little what among our specific courses, programs, or curricula may become the routine of the individual scholar. Each effort will find its niche within the over-all unity, each culture will find its identity and its dependence on others, and the sacrifice and dedication of the past will find fulfillment in the emerging stature of The George Washington University.

S E N I O R S

Transition and change place burdens of unpredictable proportions on those involved in their occurrence; and for transition and change to be effective, even the novice at carrying responsibility must perform Herculean feats. This was the first class firmly to grasp the reins of student participation in the full University community, and to make heard the growing voice of student ideas and emotions. These seniors may indeed one day be referred to as George Washington's first class, but, for their part in the spectacular transformation of this University, they will always be regarded as one of the great classes.

*The George Washington University
Alma Mater*

*Hail Alma Mater! To thy Spirit Guiding
Pledge we Fidelity by thy name abiding.
Armored in courage, ne'er from battle
hiding,
Fearless each loyal son.
For through the darkness like a lamp
is shining
Knowledge thy handmaid, in her strength combining
With lofty brotherhood, ne'er her place
resigning.
Hail thee George Washington!
For, as thy patron midst the battles
dinning,
Clear-eyed and fearless saw his forces
winning,
So for the war of life which we are beginning
Arm us, George Washington.*

The expansion of the George Washington University became apparent with the entrance of the class of 1968. Registration for the fall semester of 1964 broke the record set in the fall of 1949. The New Women's Residence Hall, nicknamed Superdorm, opened as home to over one thousand girls, doubling the amount of available residence space. An Office of Student Financial Aid was created to cope with the ever-increasing financial assistance to students. The Homecoming Ball at the National Guard Armory was decorated as a political convention, highlighting the new interest in campus politics. Students for Better Government, the only official political party on campus, emerged in time for Student Council elections. The class of 1968 is both witnessing and taking part in the continual progress of the George Washington University.

University growth was the key for the year 1965-66. The class of 1969 entered a university under the auspices of a new administration with E. K. Morris as Chairman of the Board of Trustees and Lloyd H. Elliott as President. In this centennial year of the George Washington University Law School, ground was broken for the 1.2 million dollar law library. Funds for the university library were raised through the auctions at the first annual Martha's Marathon of Birthday Bargains. Greek life increased its scope as the Sigma Chi pledge class sponsored a Viet Nam blood drive, and chapters of Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity and Delta Phi Epsilon sorority were founded at GW. The class of 1969 encountered a university life that was changing in all aspects.

C L A S S O F '70

The class of 1970 represents another link in the chain of expansion at the George Washington University. The increased number of residential students led to the acquisition of All States Hotel and 1914 G Street, nicknamed Minidorm; Crawford Hall was taken over by the fairer sex. Campus buildings were finally christened: Superdorm became Mabel Nelson Thurston Hall, All States became William Mitchell Hall. Ground was broken for the new Student Center. To ease registration problems, a summer orientation program was instituted for freshmen. Transition was also apparent in social activities; Fall Concert was held at Constitution Hall, the Homecoming Ball at the Washington Hilton Hotel, and the first annual Greek Week was scheduled. Sports felt the change in the university as football saw its last season. The class of 1970 entered a university in the process of transforming ideas and hope into reality.

College Hill, Midtown, Foggy Bottom; a residential college, a college in the city, a residential college in the city; such our history has been. We lived in one world, then in another world and now in a combination of the two. To utilize the best of both worlds more fully is our aim in this age of transition.

In Memoriam

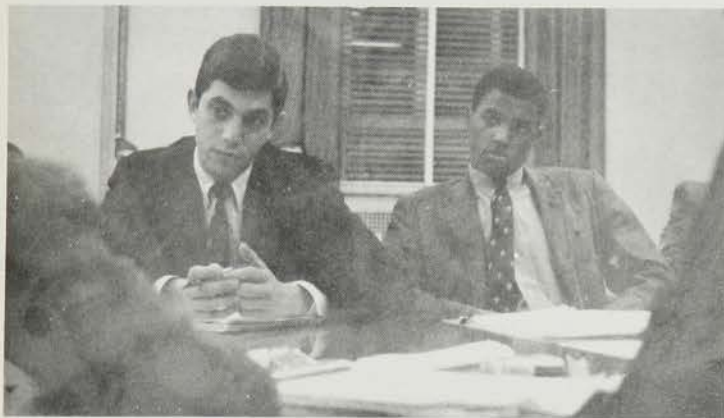

O R G A N I Z A T I O N S

There are many evidences in these times of a new spirit alive in the community life of the university. As the student population has become increasingly less transient, organizational activity, the focus of life outside the classroom, assumes a new vitality. Most gratifying are the indications that it is not a vitality without direction but a reflection of an irrevocable commitment to excellence in all things that is the hallmark of a university of the first quality.

Robert W. Kenny
Associate Professor of History

HAIL AND HIGH WATER

The varsity shell lost four lettermen; nevertheless, it won the varsity division at Grimaldi, and placed eighth at the Dad Vail Regatta — the small college national championship. Winning their first letters were Bob Blair, Jim Chromoak, Tom Hammond, Joe Johnson, Rick Kaplan, and coxwain Craig Sullivan. Returning were Larry Adair, Alan Anderson, Doug Lowe, Drew Walker and coxwain Joe Farina.

Through the diligent efforts of Coaches Harvey Montgomery and Bill Palmer, the 1966 crew season produced the finest freshman shell G.W. has ever seen. Consisting of oarsmen Mark Cymrot, Bob Foot, Ken Foot, Bob Johnson, John Morton, Ron Roos, Jeff Taylor, and coxwain Andy Brown, the freshman crew won the Grimaldi Cup in New York and later placed fifth at the Dad Vail.

GOLFERS HAVE WINNING SEASON

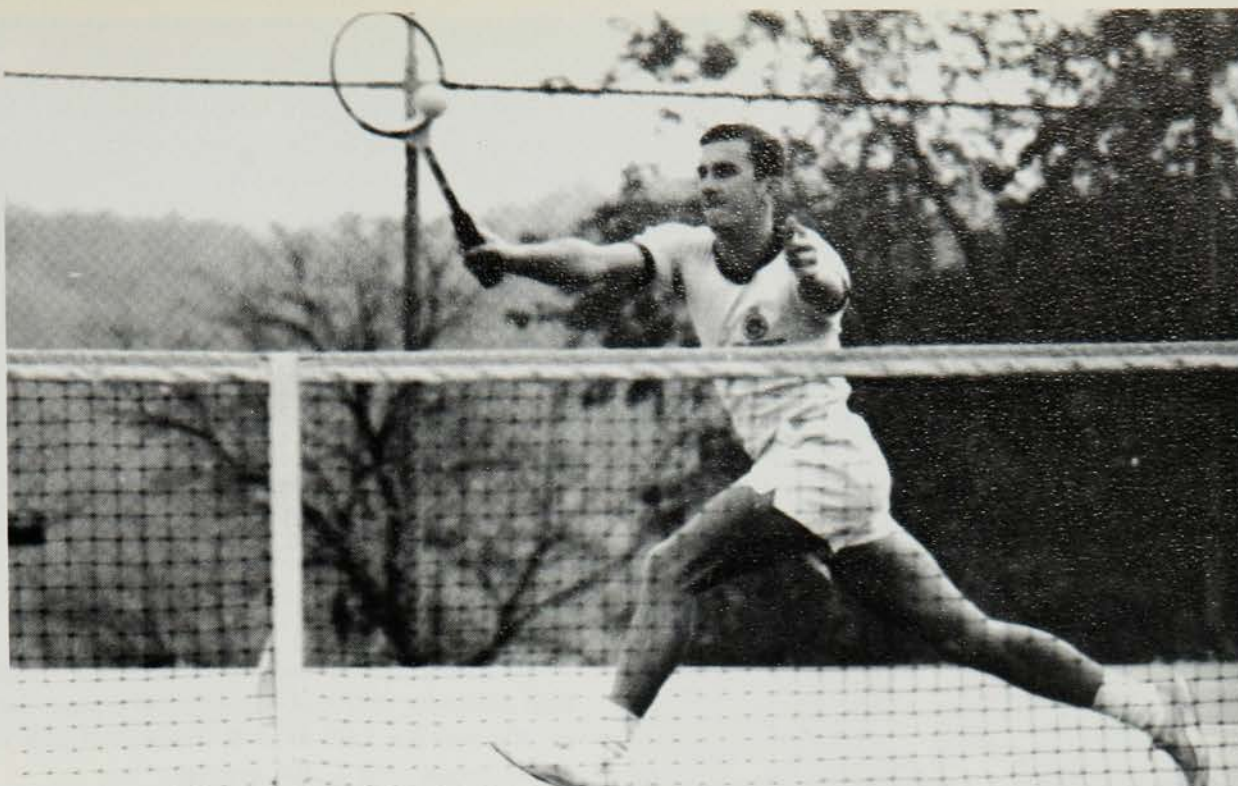

— . — NETMEN TAKE SECOND PLACE IN CONFERENCE TOURNEY

Long chips . . .

And long walks.

Freshmen prepare for varsity play . . .

As varsity completes successful season.

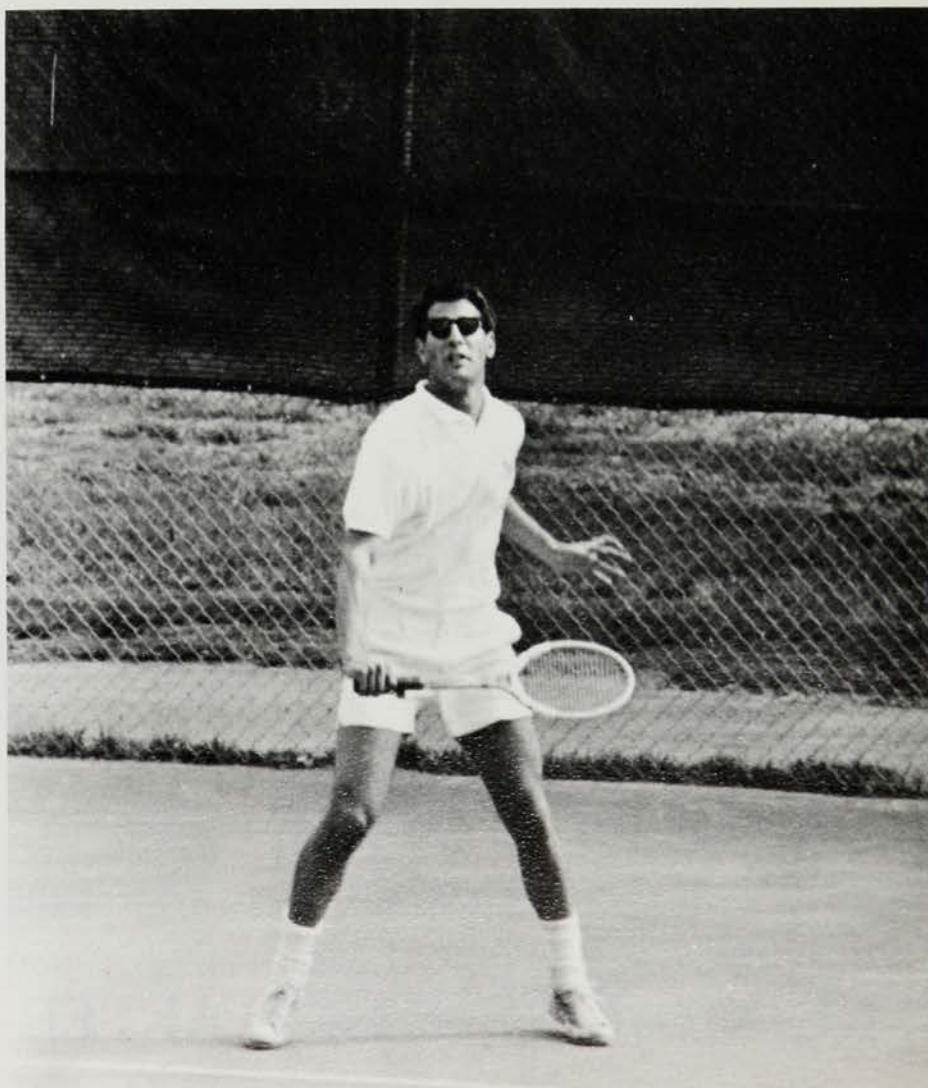

The Colonial netters placed second in the Southern Conference, losing only to Davidson in regular season S.C. play. They took the number two spot in the tourney at Richmond.

The varsity ended the season without a senior on the squad, losing Jim Paulson for the latter half of the year because of an eye injury. Tom Morgan, Larry Onie, Bobby Morgan and Terry Denlow all placed second in their positions at the conference tournament. With these men returning and two promising freshmen, Ray Jones and Ken Ferris, coming up, the team looks like a top contender in '67.

Tim Taylor, Dave Sollenberger and Mark Plotkin rounded out the team and added close victories in close matches throughout the season.

The netmen were again coached by Bill Shreve and Donny Singer, who have scheduled a challenging set of opponents for 67, including Maryland, Michigan State, Ohio State, Colgate, and Dartmouth along with the regular conference opponents.

The 1967 Southern Conference Tournament will be held at Furman. The Colonials will also compete in the Cherry Blossom Tournament at Maryland to open the new season.

Lalli's hat flies faster than his feet as he's out in a close play at second . . .

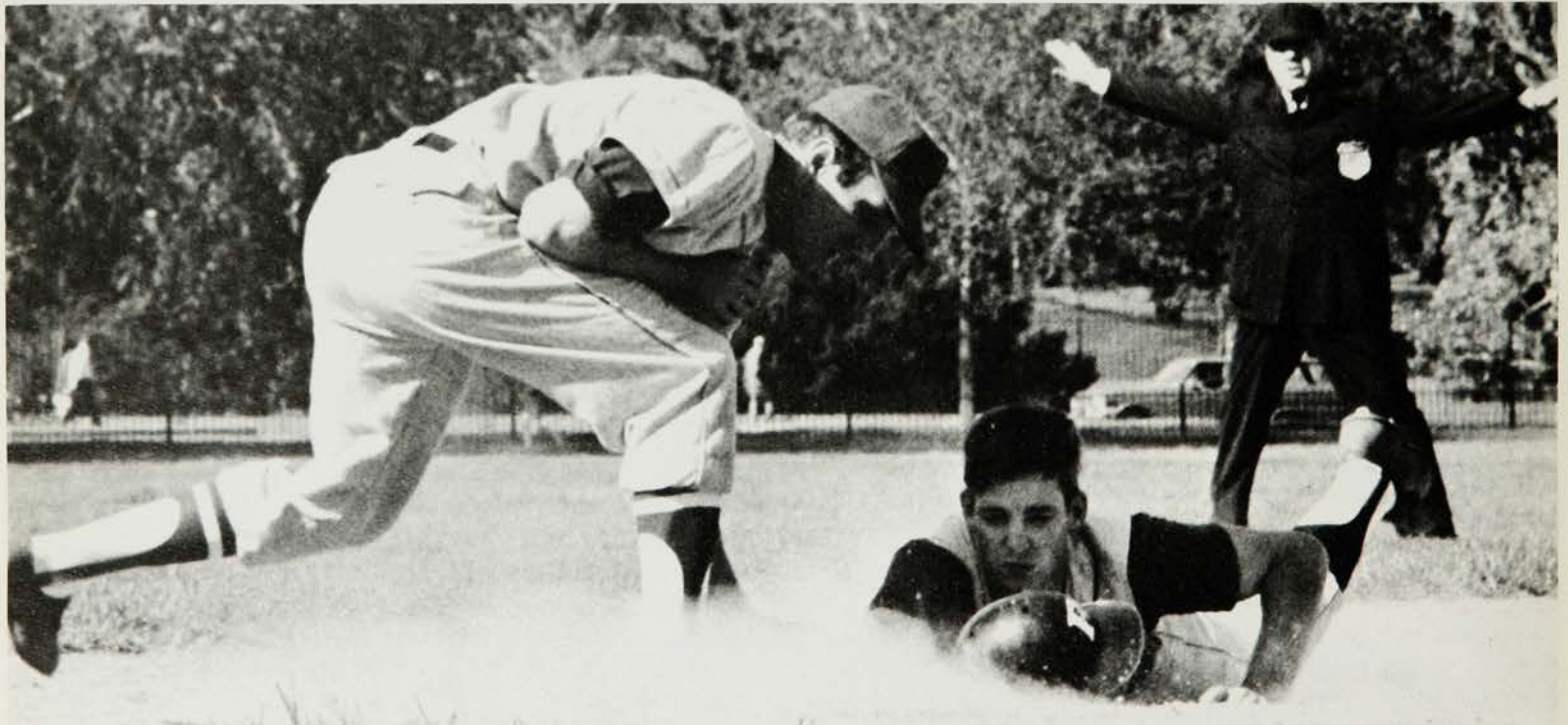

Post-Season baseball honors accumulated quickly this summer as Mike Holloran and Tim Hill led voting for Southern Conference honors.

Centerfielder Holloran collared 16 of 18 votes in being voted the All-Conference laurels for the third straight year. Tim Hill, Buff third-baseman and conference batting champion at .470, was second in the vote tally. In addition to leading the conference, Hill was the second ranked hitter in the nation.

Jerry Ricucci failed to make the All-Conference squad, a victim of his own versatility as a ball-player. Ricucci compiled a 7-1 pitching record and hit .355 playing first base while not pitching. Ricucci's batting average was good for a number six ranking in the league. His votes were split, with some coaches choosing him as first, and some as the second team pitcher.

GW placed five men among the top nine hitters. Other than Holloran, Hill and Ricucci, there were Gary Brian at .365 and Joe Lalli at .349. Richard Hester was 20th in the league with a .306 average.

In team batting, GW led the league, hitting .318 to West Virginia's .283. Joe Mullan led the conference in runs scored with 26.

SOCCER SQUAD

Another Colonial practices his kick.

After a rather discouraging season, GW's soccer team ended its year on a successful note, placing second in the Southern Conference Tournament. Throughout the season, GW was plagued by injuries and scholastic absences, as well as a bit of bad luck. A case in point is the Georgetown match: four out of five Colonial starters were missing from the line-up. As if this weren't enough, a broken water pipe near the GW goal turned it into a quagmire of mud, causing goalie Steve Fine to lose his balance on several crucial shots.

Despite such mishaps, the Colonials trounced William & Mary, 6-1, and entered the tournament with high expectations. With most of the team present, the Buff upset last year's runner-up, Davidson, 1-0, on the strength of Roland Romain's decisive goal.

FINISHES STRONG

Four hours later, GW took the field against the Citadel, and proceeded to score an impressive 7-0 shut-out.

The next day our team faced the only other unbeaten team in the tournament, West Virginia. After a scoreless first half, West Virginia managed to sneak a shot past goalie Steve Fine, playing despite a torn cartilage in his knee. The game ended 4-0. Disheartened by this loss, GW was later upset by Furman, with three seconds to go. The Colonials still placed second.

Five members of our team were voted All-Conference, including goalie Steve Fine; captain and center John Lenning; left full-back Dave Satter; forward Roland Romain, and forward Ernie Bonhomme, who also won the Most Valuable Player award.

THE BLUE

Authority . . .

A hope and a prayer.

Rick Barton (21) finds the going rough.

Defender Bob Schmidt (11) stalks his prey.

Even workhorse Steve Molnar had his bad days.

EARLY IN THE YEAR PROGRESS WAS SLOW . . .

Sophomores make mistakes, and the Colonial gridmen were no exception. The Buff lost their first three games as inexperience proved costly. Three sophomores and a junior were in the backfield in the season opener against Davidson. Although favored, the Buff dropped a 13-9 decision. After a 49-0 disaster at the hands of powerful V.P.I., Coach Camp still thought the Colonials were showing improvement.

The Buff came home to play William & Mary, co-Conference champs. On a muddy field, Steve Molnar gave notice that he had arrived as a football player. The Canadian back churned up the mud in grinding out 117 yards from scrimmage. Molnar won Southern Conference back of the week for his effort; but GW lost the game, 10-3. On the last play of the game, Davis ran for the end zone with the tying points, only to fall an inch short.

"Here, take this ball and run like hell."

AGAINST WILLIAM AND MARY . . .

THE BUFF STILL PLAYED 'SLOPPY' BALL . . .

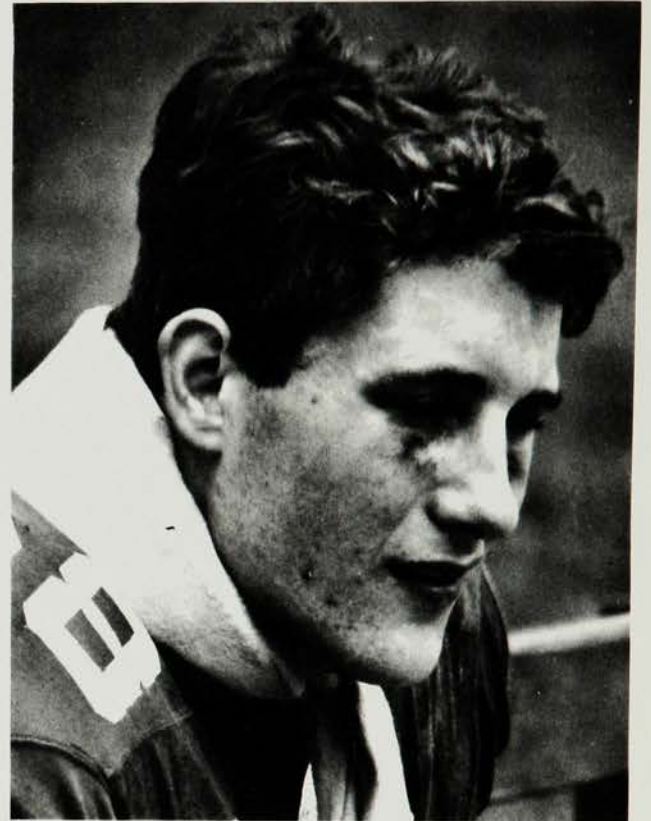

It was a wet, muddy and miserable night for a wet, muddy, and magnificent game.

Steve Molnar, who gained 117 yards rushing and out-gained the entire William and Mary squad, was the work-horse. He's number 35.

As is evident from the pictures, a good time was had by all.

What's the toughest laundry problem . . .

THEN FOUND SUCCESS — —

AND WON

FOUR STRAIGHT

Sophomores also have a habit of improving as the season progresses, and once again GW fell right into the mold. Colonials ran off four straight victories before losing their last three. The Citadel was the first victim of the GW surge; led by an 82 yard kick return by Molnar, and Tom Metz's 55 yard punt return, the Buff up-ended the Bulldogs 21-13. Against East Carolina, the Colonial defense played superbly in gaining a 20-7 conquest of the co-Conference champs.

V.M.I. was next to feel the Colonials newly found defensive might. The Keydets were whitewashed, 13-0, as Davis mixed his plays beautifully. The young signal caller completed 75% of his 16 passes, while Steve Molnar broke 100 yards rushing once again. The Buff offense found itself against Furman, as they rolled up 49 points. The offense gained 410 yards rushing while Davis added another 107 through the air lanes on 9 of 13. Bob Shue led the rushers with 82 yards; Molnar added 69 and Jim Barton and Jim Isom both gained over 50 yards.

The Colonials suffered defeat as they invaded West Point and were repelled 20-7 by Army and its tremendous sophomore quarterback Steve Lindell. Steve Molnar gained 134 yards against West Virginia, but it was not enough as the Mountaineers downed the Buff 21-6. In a Thanksgiving Day game against Villanova, the Buff lost 16-7 to finish the year with a 4-6 record.

... But Football Left The GW Scene

Amid the glare of lights . . .

. . . The fatal announcement was made.

The football question arose in May, 1965, when the University Senate's recommendation that football be discontinued was defeated by the Board of Trustees. However, on January 19, 1967, the Trustees delivered the coup de grace to an already prostrate football program, "after reviewing the possible courses of action and considering the limited resources with which the University must meet its commitments."

The issue was spotlighted when Head Coach Jim Camp resigned December 19 because the future of football was uncertain. The following day, Trustee James Van Story confirmed Camp's statement, adding that the Board would consider proposals by President Lloyd H. Elliott at the Jan. 19 meeting.

It was not the first time that football had been discontinued, but not since the war years, 1943-45, has there been a break.

In 58 years of varsity competition, the Colonials won 208, lost 241 and tied 34. GW's Southern Conference record, since joining the conference in 1941, was 53-73-4. The highest conference finish was second in 1960. Last year's third place finish was the highest since that year.

The list of past GW greats always begins with Tuffy Leemans, who played for the Buff in the Jim Pixlee days of the thirties and went on to play with the New York Giants. Other well known players include Ray Hanken and Steve Korchek and more recently, Dick Drummond and Mike Holloran. Last season ended on a bright note as Jim Camp was voted Conference Coach of the Year and Brad Cashman was recognized as the outstanding blocker.

Delts Capture

Intramural Football

Delta Tau Delta fraternity ran away with football intramurals as they captured both the 'A' League and Sunday 'B' League titles.

Chalking up 5-0 records in both leagues, the Delts never were really challenged. Health Care Administration came close to matching them in the Sunday 'B' League, but fell short by half a game.

In Saturday 'B' League, Sigma Nu, behind the pass receiving of Larry Den, raced to the championship.

With the completion of football, ping pong, basketball, and swimming, Delts, SAE, AEPi, and Sigma Chi are leading the field in intramural point totals.

Rugged play . . .

Babe McCarthy Leads . . .

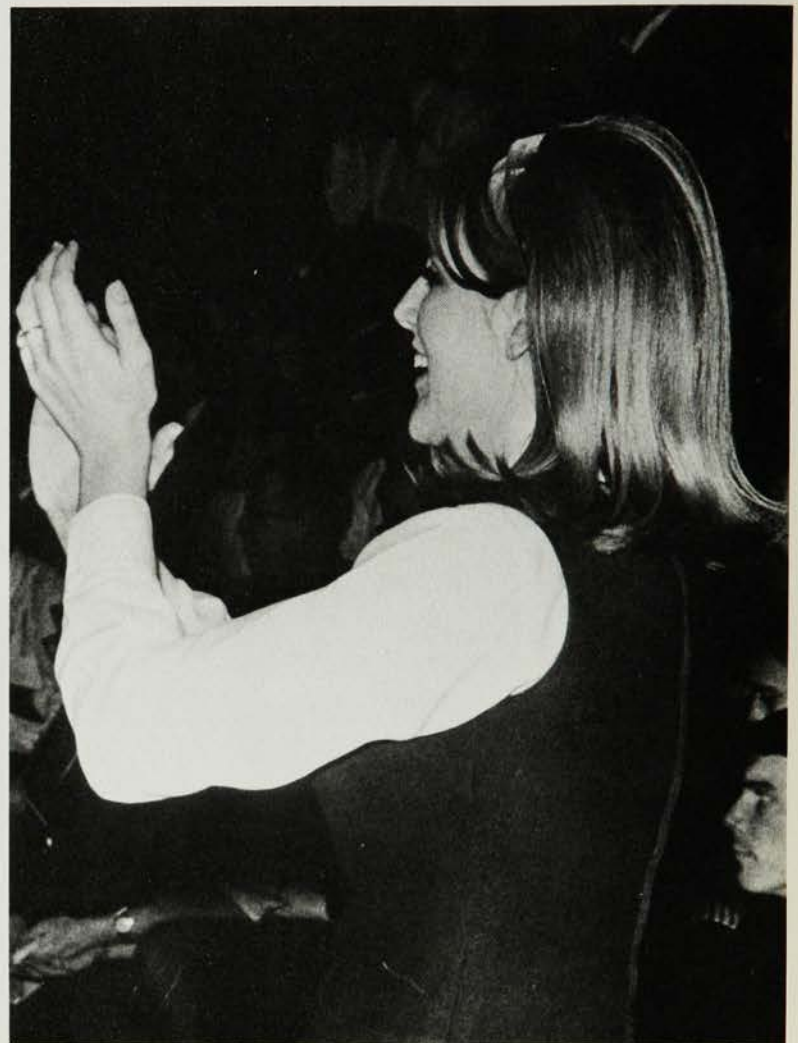

... Basketball Revival

Control Basketball Improves GW's Game . . .

George Washington . . .

And Pat Gearhart lead the Ft. Myer crowd.

When basketball coach Bill Reinhart retired last spring, GW basketball seemed to be at a low ebb. And when James "Babe" McCarthy assumed coaching duties, few gave him much chance for success.

McCarthy came to GW after coaching 10 years at Mississippi State and winning four Southern Conference championships against competition like Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Alabama and Mississippi. His brand of play was "control basketball" and soon announced that this would be the key to GW's basketball fortunes in 1967.

The job was a difficult one because McCarthy was left with a virtually intact team that had compiled a 3-18 record under Reinhart's running game.

But the key to winning would not only be control basketball; it would also be Jo Lalli, a 5'8" senior from Dunmore, Pennsylvania, who as Colonial field general and playmaker, would lead the Buff attack.

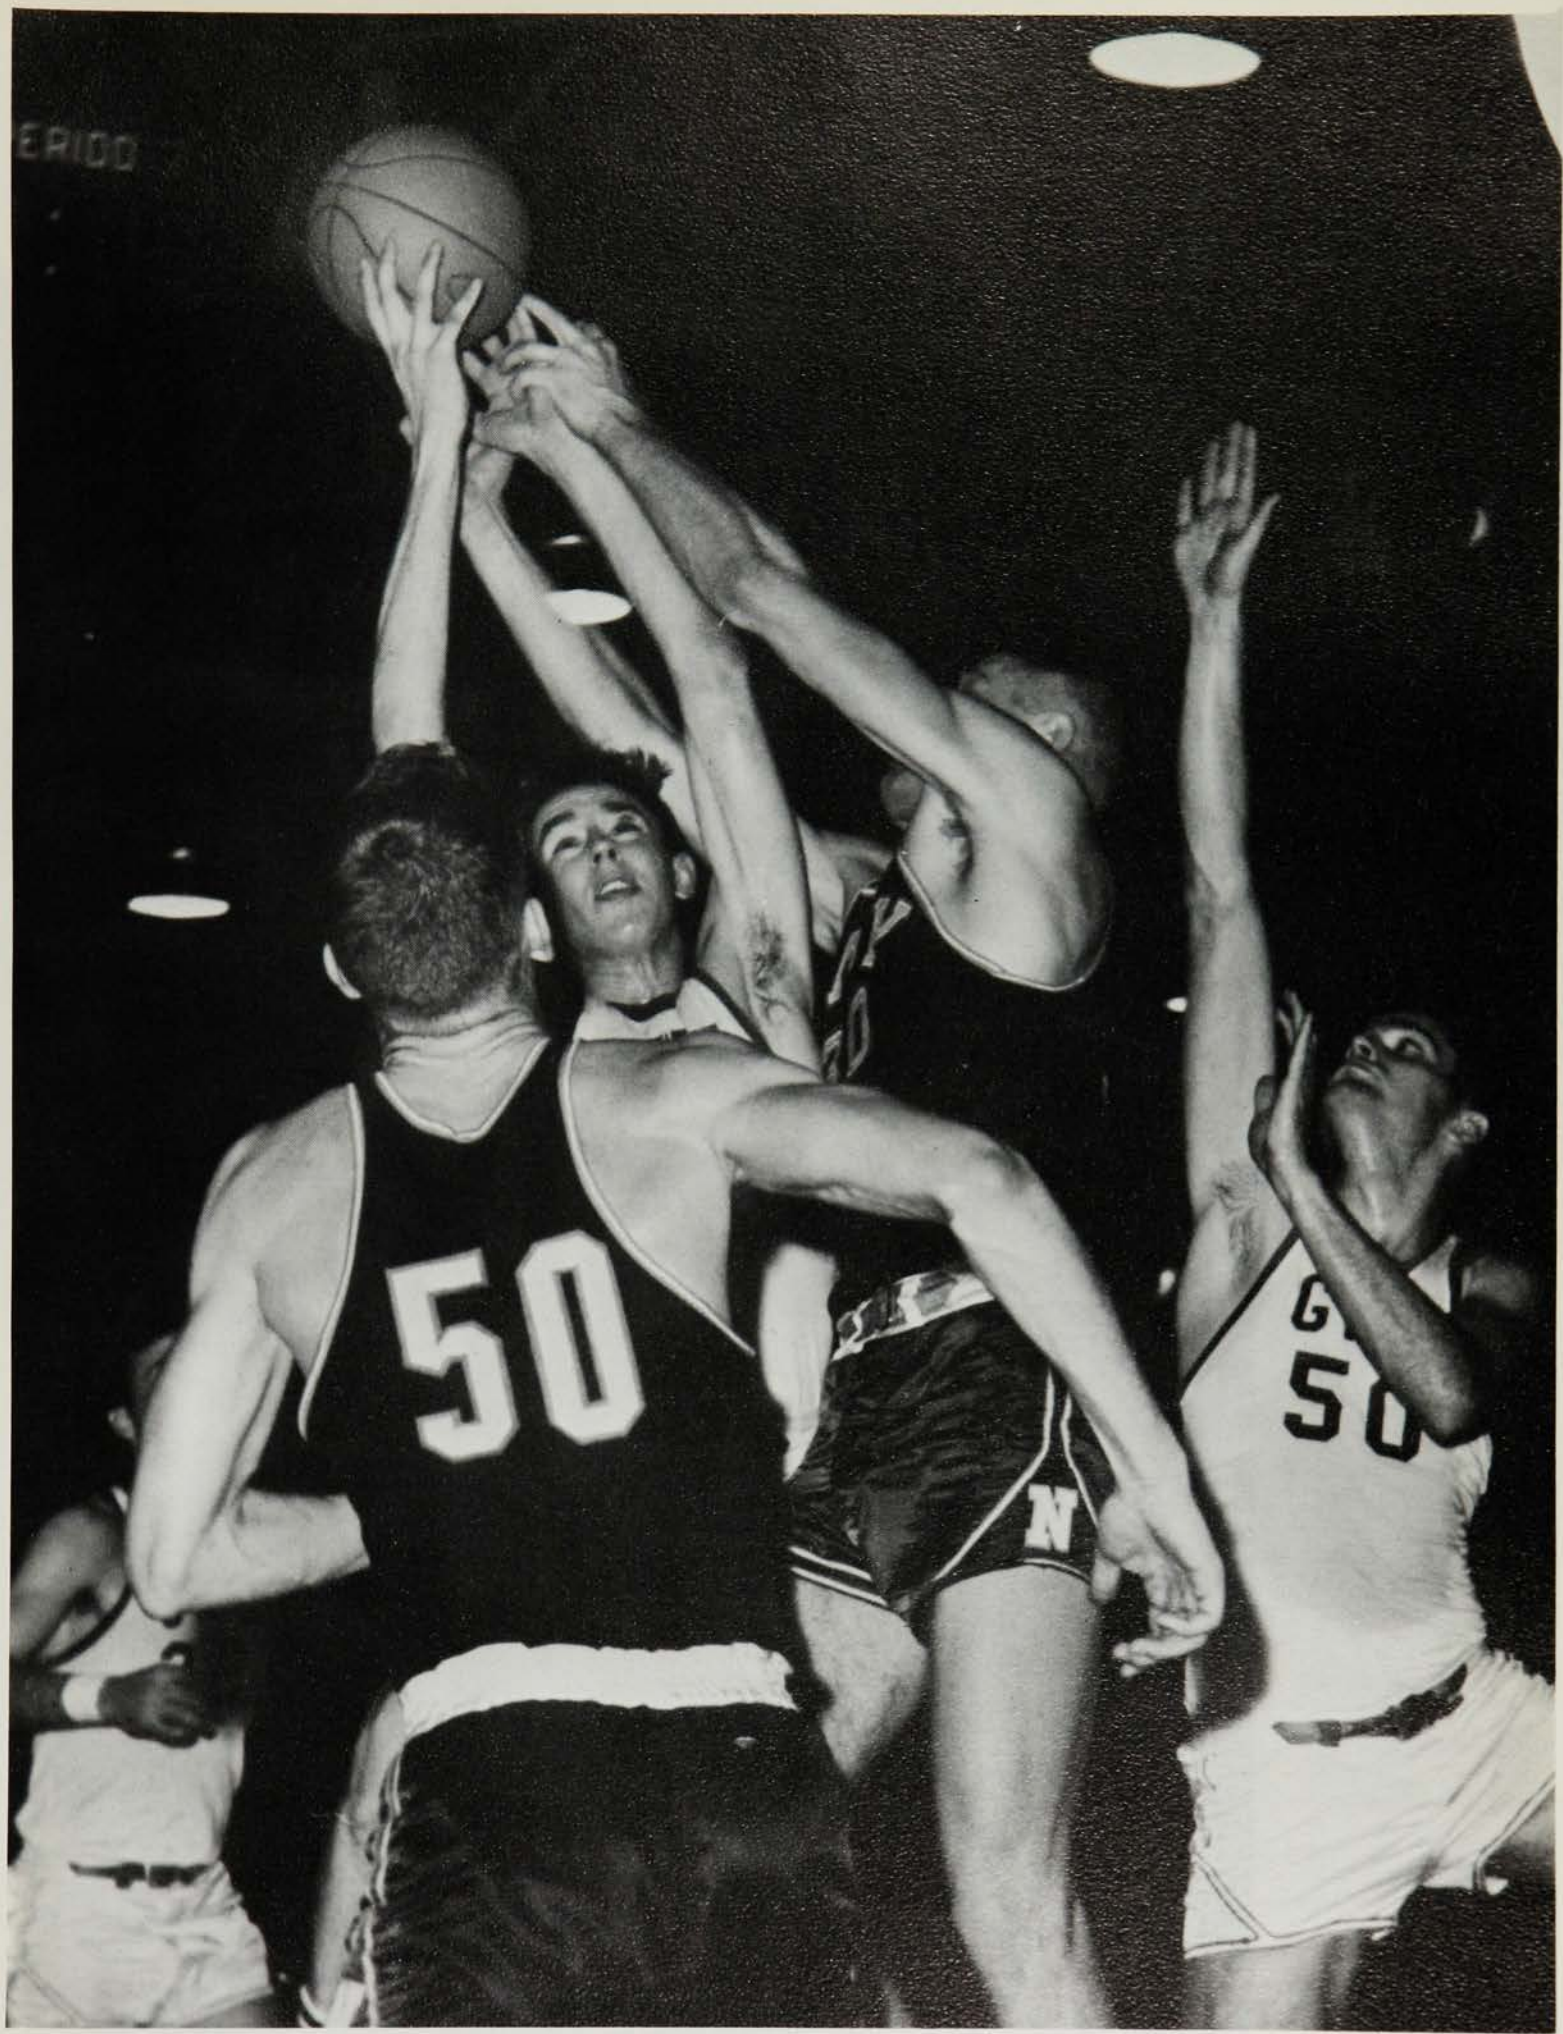

Colonial fans got wind of what the season would be like when GW battled 10th ranked Cincinnati in the season opener on the road. It was a losing cause, 85-61, but the game was close well into the second half. The home opener was also a loss, but a respectable one to a respectable team. Syracuse fought from behind for a 99-83 victory.

With senior Dick Ellis leading the scoring attack, the Buff upset pre-season conference contender Richmond with an effective demonstration of control basketball and McCarthy offensive tactics. In the closing moments of the game, Lalli dribbled circles around the Richmond defenders and forced them to foul. With his usual free throw accuracy, Lalli put the game out of reach of the Spiders.

The next three games were all close, but they were all losses. The Colonials succumbed to The Citadel, 89-86, and in a squeaker, to Georgetown, 52-51. A strong William and Mary squad could manage only 36 tallies against McCarthy's slow-down game, but won by six points. In probably the biggest Colonial victory, Davidson's powerful Wildcats and pre-season top 20 pick were upended, 55-54.

Terry Grefe, next to Lalli the most consistent Colonial ball player, was named to the Storrs, Connecticut All-Tournament team for his outstading play on both offense and defense. GW lost both games in the festival to Connecticut and Columbia.

... As Colonials Chalk Up

The game's not over yet!

Colonials pause for their rendition of "Swan Lake".

Twice Their 1965-66 Victories.

Following the holiday festival, GW took on nationally ranked St. Johns of New York, and though leading at halftime, finally fell 79-58. A loss to William and Mary followed, but the Buff picked up their victory against VMI, winning by three, 65-62. East Carolina and Richmond were losing causes, but in a rematch with VMI, the Colonials were again victorious.

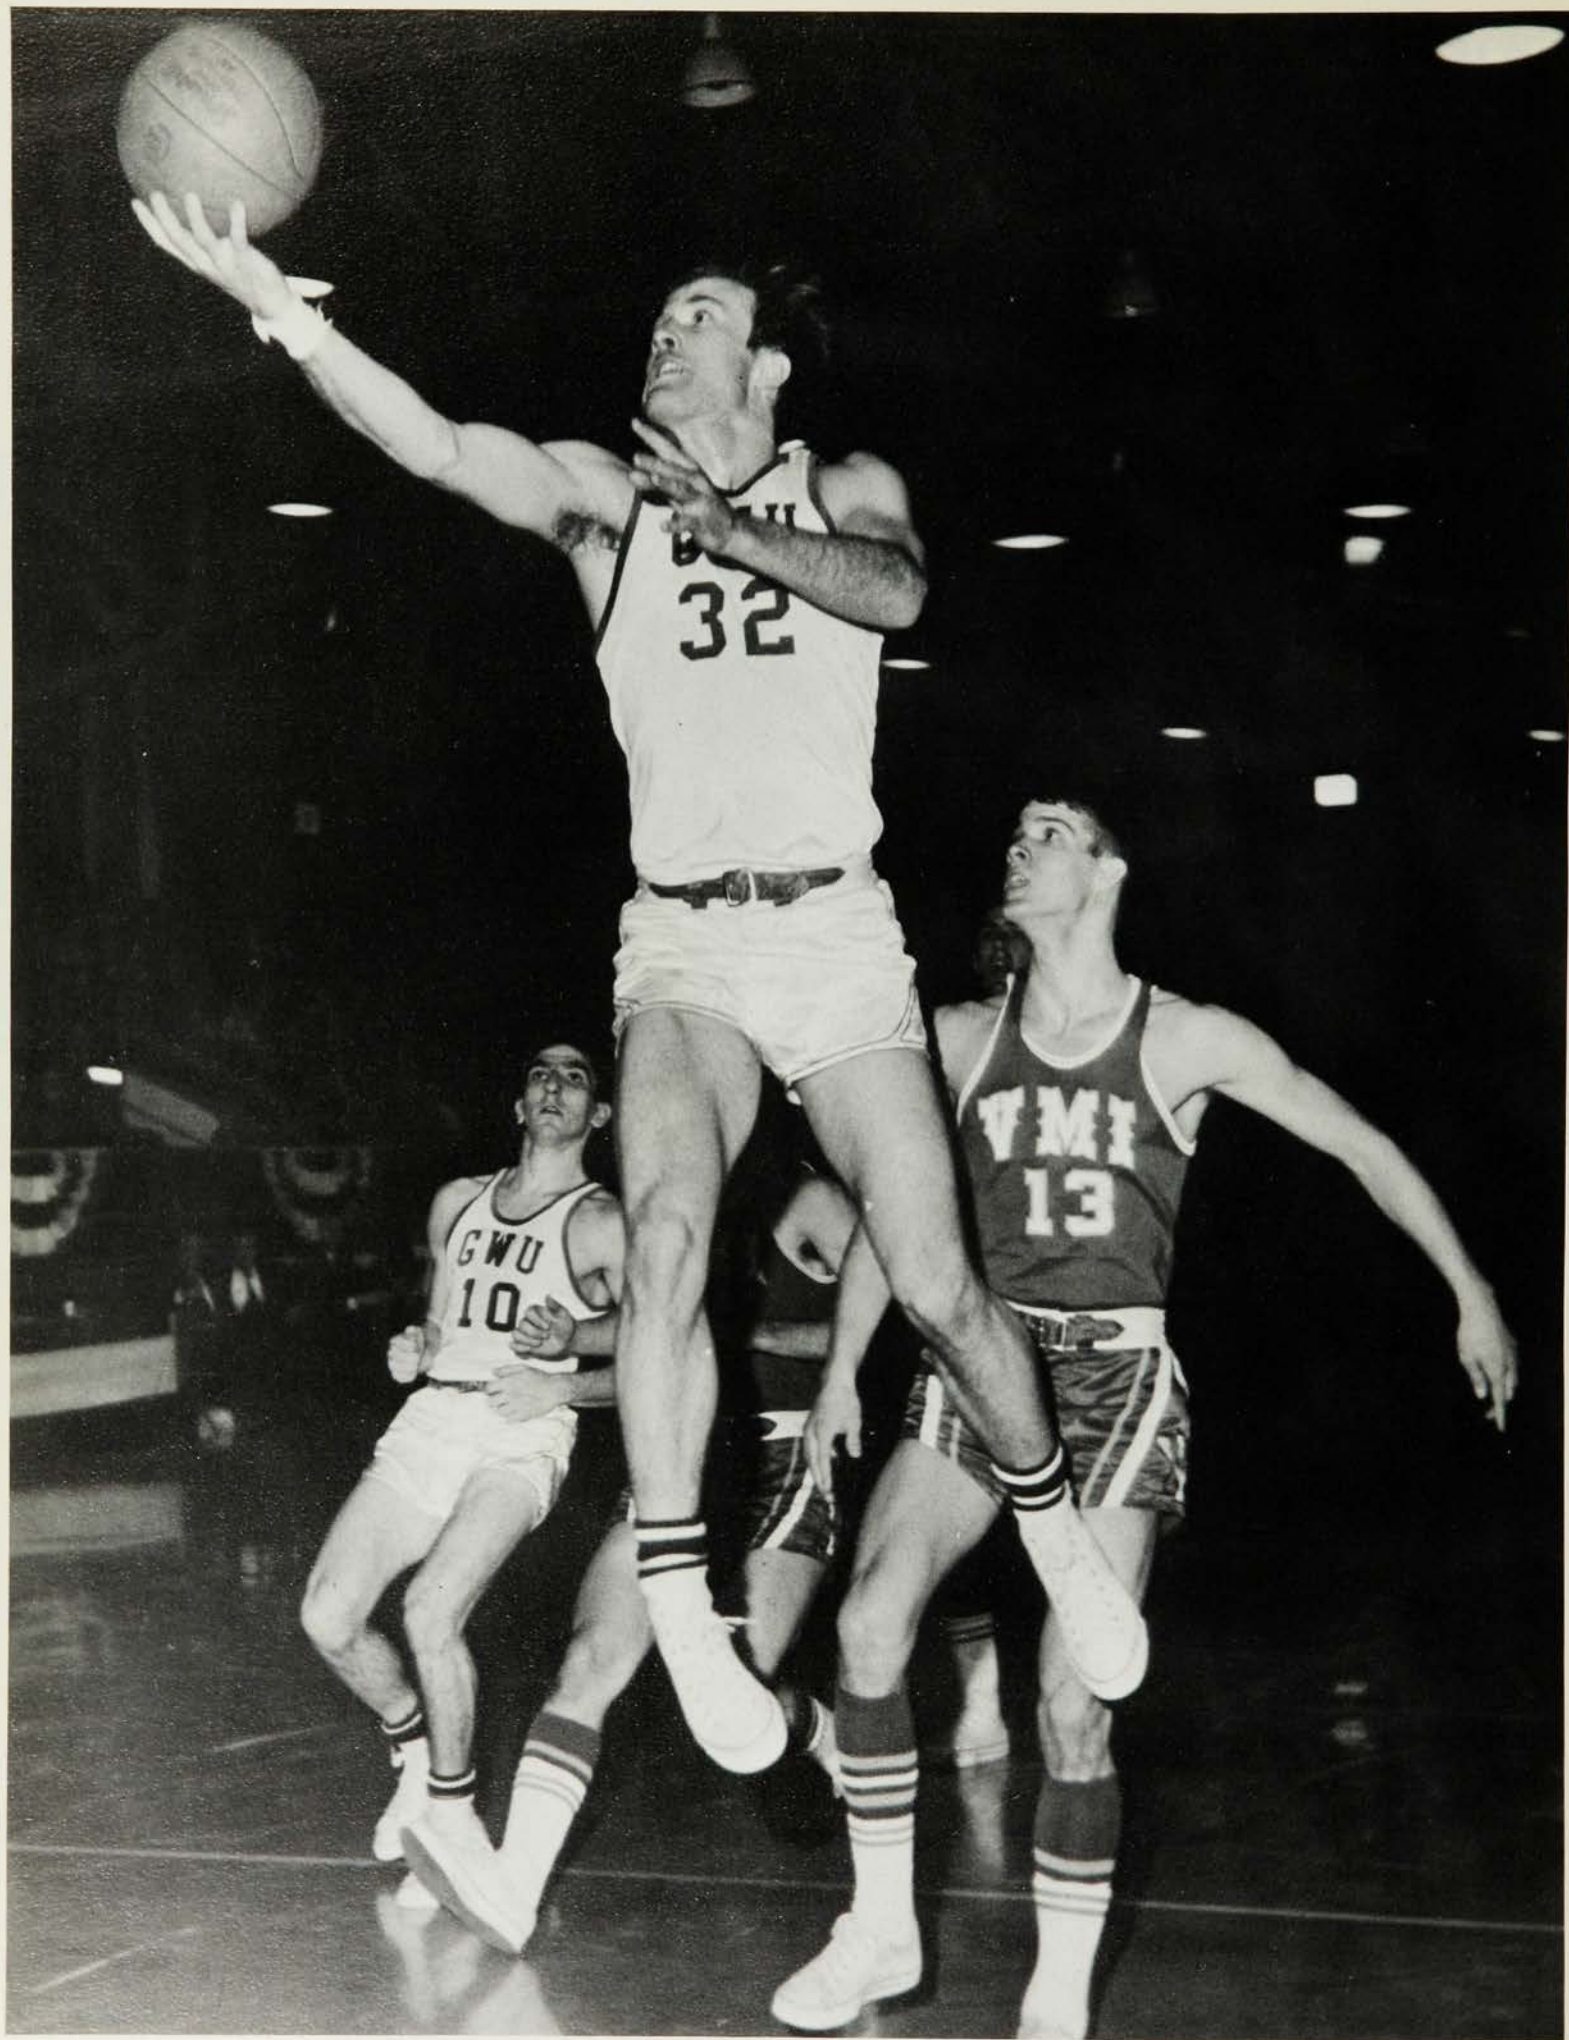

Navy was another close battle, but the Buff lost by five. NCAA Tournament-bound Virginia Tech could only manage an eight point victory. At Univ. of Maryland, the Colonials played one of their poorest games of the season and were badly thrashed by an erratic Terrapin squad.

GW turned the tables on East Carolina, and before a sparse home crowd, won 93-78. Virginia Tech was too tough for the Buff, however, and won handily in a game at Ft. Myer. West Virginia was also too powerful, but the Colonials shocked Georgetown's Hoyas, 81-75, in a game that featured a wild slug-fest and a temporary culmination of a feud between McCarthy and Georgetown coach Magee. Ed Rainey and Georgetown's Steve Sullivan were both ejected.

In the season's only real crushing defeat, West Virginia poured in the baskets in a game at Morgantown and won easily, 127-97. It was the only time the Buff gave up over 100 points.

THE GATE AND KEY NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Alpha Chapter
at The George Washington University
"The Action Honorary"

The Gate and Key Honor Society had an active year of living, learning, and giving at GW. The annual "Ugly Man" Contest, won by Earl Kabnick of Phi Sigma Kappa, grossed over $1,300.00 for the charity fund, most of which went to the Fund for the Library, while a portion was used for the purchase of a special machine, the "Phonic Mirror," for the speech therapy clinic of the Speech Department.

The Gate and Key Society continued its long tradition of involvement in the academic, political, and social life of the campus. One nostalgic note, though . . . the picture above is of the "fraters" gathered during the half time of a GW football game.

Congratulations, students, for preparing yourselves to take your places in society. Education produces maturity. Maturity governs action. May your maturity be clearly demonstrated — especially as you drive your automobile.
